

The Naked Gun

By: Ethan Beals

The Naked Gun, that does not sound right. The Naked Gun is a comedy that everyone has to see. According to Janet Maslin from the New York Times “Join the wacko goings-on and blow the laugh-o-meter to smithereens” end quote. In this movie Leslie Nielsen plays Frank Drebin, the main character, and one of the funniest actors of our time. The producer Robert K. Weiss produced all three of The Naked Gun movies as well as twenty other movies.

In the movie Frank Drebin is a lieutenant in Police Squad, LAPD's special crime unit, is trying to stop Vincent Ludwig's evil plan to kill Queen Elizabeth the II. In Frank Drebin's attempts to prove that Ludwig is trying to kill the queen he makes a big fool of himself. Unfortunately I cannot tell you any more or I would give away the ending of the movie. I strongly suggest that everyone watch this movie. You will laugh your head off with this movie. In other words laugh your head off!
